A CARD.

It has been ever a welcome and honored custom of every theaire in the Old World to introduce at this period of the year rome fairy or romantle spectacle emblements of the season. Of the many pieces founded on legendary story to which kmas times have given birth that of the

has been universally admitted to be the most attractive. As a spectacle it is as complete as if it had been devised by Queen Mab herself, while there is a human interest running through every scene and bearing on its current the fantastic shapes of a fairy world. It thus carries an attraction for all, while especially furnishing to the eyes of the little lovers of fairy lore a feast of unequalled splender.

To render the evening's enjoyment as perfect as possible the spectacle will niways be preceded by a Standard Comedy or Draum, in which, as well as in the Naiad Queen,:
